Where you get the news every Sunday

PACK is a costumed-crime-fighter, vigilante-justice comic book series about a pack of one man and six dogs with zero tolerance for the abuse of the innocent. Join Patience and his dogs of virtue in this comic-book noir as they prowl the darkest alleys of the Brooklyn night. These lawless vigilantes make their own justice, putting criminals under the fang. In dark times wrought with corruption and violence, the lines between hero and villain, humane and horrific are blurred, but to the PACK it's simple: Theirs is the only acceptable violence, and their retribution is as swift as it is fierce.

We've put together this gritty sampling of the first eight pages from PACK #1: Humility to give readers a taste of the series.

You can find full issues of PACK at onshipress.com/store, learn about the PACK and its members, at PACKcomic.com, or visit patreon.com/onshipress to learn how your subscription can bring their story into your world.
